Emil and the Detectives – Lesson 2

Subject: Year 8 English – Miss Boulton

Time: 50 minutes

Learning Objective: I can recall facts from the story. I can state my opinion and give reasons for it.

Task 1: Proper Nouns

Click on the link below to refresh your memory of Proper Nouns. You will be doing an activity on proper nouns later, so make sure to listen carefully. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CjiD8Vc-F_8

Task 2: Chapter 9 – The Detectives Assemble

Task 3: Quick Comprehension

Answer the questions below. Write your answers as full sentences (not one-word answers).

1. What is Tuesday's job?
2. Tuesday is good at barking; what job does he suggest he could have done?
3. Who is going to deliver a note to Emil's Grandma?
4. What password do the boys have to give to Tuesday when they phone him?

Task 4: What do you think?

In the chapter we have just read, the boys argue about whether or not it is wrong to steal something back from someone. Emil and the Professor say that it is wrong to steal something back, even if it belonged to you in the first place. Tuesday and Traut believe that there is nothing wrong with this, you're just retrieving what is yours.

What do you think? Do you think that it is right, wrong or somewhere in between?

Copy and complete the sentence below to explain your point of view. If you can try to write more than one sentence. Use conjunctions (and, but, because, so) to extend your sentences and explain your ideas.

I think that it is okay/wrong to steal something back from someone because...

Task 5: Fix the Sentences

The sentences below are full of mistakes. The proper nouns within these sentences are all missing their capital letters. Fix the mistakes by rewriting the sentences correctly.

1. emil's trip to berlin was starting to look up.
2. emil had already made good friends in gustav, tuesday and the professor.
3. "The people in berlin aren't too different to the people in neustadt," emil said to himself.
4. gustav will wait outside the café to keep an eye on mr grundeis.
5. brett will take the note to emil's grandmother at 15 schumann street.
